

ARMY IS TO OBSERVE PEACE SUNDAY

Gen. Pershing Orders All Border Brigade Troops to Have Services.

Peace Sunday will be observed throughout the United States army in compliance with the president's peace proclamation setting apart Sunday, October 4, as a day for peace observances and prayers.

Services on the Border.

Gen. John J. Pershing, through Adj. Gen. William B. Sample, has issued orders to all troops in the border brigade to observe the day in an appropriate manner. Joint services will be held by the chaplains of the 15th cavalry and the 20th infantry on the Fort Bliss parade ground at 10:30 Sunday morning. At the sixth infantry camp the service for peace will be held at 9 o'clock in the regimental chapel building. The 10th infantry peace services have been arranged for 8 o'clock Sunday morning by the regimental chaplain.

Col. Frank West, who commanded the second cavalry when that regiment was stationed at Fort Bliss, has been ordered retired and has gone to his home. Col. West has been on detached service for several months. Col. West has been stationed at Fort Blum, N. Y., in charge of the recruiting station.

Tournament Tests. Competitive tests to determine the entries in the military tournament from the second squadron of the 15th cavalry were held at Fort Bliss Thursday. Capt. C. H. Conrad, Capt. Ben.

Leary, Jr., and Lieut. I. S. Martin went to Fabens Friday to conduct the tests for the members of the first squadron, 15th cavalry, in the tournament competition.

A number of officers of the border brigade are leaving for Fort Riley, Kan., to attend the mounted service school. Maj. J. M. Koehler, of the 15th cavalry, has gone to Fort Riley to take the course for field officers at the school of equitation. Mrs. Koehler will visit her mother, Mrs. D. H. Anthony, at Leavenworth, Kan. Lieut. Victor S. Foster, of the 15th cavalry, has been ordered to Fort Riley to attend the riding school and will take the second year's course in the mounted service school. He has been stationed at Fort Hancock in command of troop C. He will leave Saturday. Lieut. Vincent Irvin of the sixth artillery has also gone to the riding school.

Retired Officer Here. Capt. W. D. Conrad, retired, is here from Gila Bend, Ariz., to visit his brother, Capt. C. H. Conrad, of the 15th cavalry, and will remain at the post for a month. Lieut. Rodman Butler, of the 15th cavalry, is here from his station at Marfa, Tex. His sister, Mrs. J. J. Morrow, is here as his guest. She is the wife of Maj. J. J. Morrow, of the engineers' corps.
